Mr. Robert Amory, Jr
Deputy Director for Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

My dear Mr. Amory:

Upon receipt of my copy of the 1960 Police Year Book, International Association of Chiefs of Police, I read your article, "Law Enforcement In Soviet Russia" and found it to be most interesting and beautifully written. You are to be congratulated and I do hope that we can have more information of that nature.

I often wonder why stories of that kind as well as other information about the activities inside Soviet Russia, are not published for the benefit of every American, not just for those in the police profession. It would enlighten many complacent ones as to whom we are dealing with.

During the next IACP conference in Washington, I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you in person.

Cordially yours,

H. W. Rodney
